

SOLA

APPALACHIAN CHRISTIAN RETREAT

About us:

Doug: (trailname, Banzai) is a graduate of the University of Michigan, Wake Forest University, and Sangre de Cristo Seminary. He is a licensed minister in the Reformed Presbyterian Church – Hanover Presbytery. He completed a northbound thru-hike of the Appalachian Trail in 2013.

Priscilla: (trailname, Hot Drinks) grew up in southeast Michigan where she was home-schooled and took weekly violin lessons for over 12 years. She became a registered nurse in 2012, has worked in various nursing jobs and served overseas among orphans. She loves people and giving care to those around her, she also enjoys hiking, camping, running, baking bread, and drinking coffee (especially French-pressed)!

Us: We met in Switzerland in 2016 and were married 9 months later. We now live together in western NC and are expecting our first child in October.

Our Mission, 3 areas of work:

1. Evangelism on the Appalachian Trail
2. Hosting missionary's on furlough.
3. Conducting a Winter study term.

Our Influences:

1. Sangre de Cristo Seminary, Colorado
2. L'Abri Christian Fellowship, Switzerland
3. Wood's Hole Hostel, on the Appalachian Trail

Ways you can be involved:

1. Sign up for our newsletter on discover sola.com
2. Pray for us
3. Become a financial supporter
4. Volunteer at Sola

