Mission of the Women's Ministry

The Harbor Women's Ministry exists to provide structure and support for women to minister to other women within the church for the purpose of their spiritual growth. Under the oversight of the Session, this is accomplished through Bible studies, prayer, discipleship activities, teaching, training, personalized care and celebration and fellowship events.

Women's Care Team (WCT): Serves in an advisory role to the session and assists them in caring for the women of the church. The general focus of the WCT is on providing for women's spiritual growth and encouragement through prayer, Bible study, discipleship, fellowship and training. WCT members receive shepherding and leadership training and may be called upon to assist the session with personalized discipleship and care for women of the church. The WCT organizes women's Bible studies and provides oversight and support for the other Women's Ministry teams.
